OUR REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH

Welcome!

Welcome and thank you for joining us for worship today! You have joined us for the most important time we spend together. Each time we gather as a family of faith, we make the gospel (or good news) of Jesus our central focus. It is not just information about what Jesus did to save sinners. It is also the power God uses to work faith in our hearts and transform our lives. In the message and meal (Holy Communion), in specially selected Scripture readings, and in carefully crafted songs, prayers, and creeds, our service proclaims the good news about Jesus from start to finish. Many of the elements of this service have ancient roots in the Christian church. Some are very recent. Lutheran worship is also designed to include the participation of the entire assembly (including children).

Are you visiting with us today? Thank you! We love meeting our neighbors and would be grateful for the opportunity to extend our thanks in a more formal way. Please consider filling out one of the Welcome/Connect cards in the rack in front of you, or scan the QR code to the right to help us know you better.

For Your Convenience

- The order of service is printed in this folder. If a song is not printed in this service folder, it can be found in the blue hymnal in front of your seat. The pastor will speak the words in normal print. The congregation is invited to speak those printed in bold. Please participate as you are comfortable today.
- Restrooms are located in the fellowship hall building to the left as you exit church.
- Please reserve the rows in the back of the church for families with small children.
- If you are in need of any other assistance, any one of our members will be happy to assist you.

Participation & Children

Sometimes parents (and even churches) think that worship is not a place for children. At Our Redeemer, we're convinced that nothing could be further from the truth. We want children in church worshiping with their families and learning about Jesus' love for them. Why?

- Even from the earliest of ages, children are models of faith from which we can all learn (Luke 18:16,17). Similarly, they learn how to "do church" by watching mom & dad. Model worship for them.
- Our worship format not only encourages families to be together, but is ideally suited for active worship engagement and participation by all, including children, balancing new service elements each week with regular repetition for learning and memorization.
- The sights and sounds of active children during worship isn't bad at all – it's a reminder to the adults that the next generation of church leaders is already among us.

We realize that, especially at first, having children in church can be a challenge for parents. To help, we offer the following:

- If your child needs some individual attention to calm them down, an area in the fellowship hall, located just to the left as you exit church, is available. Worship can be watched and heard in this room.
- Other families are willing and ready to help. Let us know if we can offer a hand with your little ones.
- Activity sheets that kids can work on throughout the service are available on the stand in the back.

Current Series: Imminent Arrival

Do you remember the feeling when someone important is about to arrive at your place? It's a mixture of anticipation and excitement and nervousness. Did you make all the correct preparations? Will the person be happy to see you? When and how will the person arrive? Will there be any surprises?

During these weeks before Christmas, we anticipate the imminent arrival of Jesus. He's an important person! We are about to celebrate his birth. He could return on judgment day at any time. But in worship we realize that he impacts our lives when the Bible is read and when the sacraments are administered. Suddenly we feel the excitement of an imminent arrival.

November 30	First Sunday in Advent	Imminent Arrival of the King
December 7	Second Sunday in Advent	Imminent Arrival of the Judge
December 14	Third Sunday in Advent	Imminent Arrival of the Messiah
December 21	Fourth Sunday in Advent	Imminent Arrival of Emmanuel

Service Focus

The judge is an important person. You stand when he enters the courtroom. What he says must be obeyed. If you are the one on trial, his determinations make a big difference in how your life will continue.

You might be quite nervous if the judge is about to arrive. John invited people to turn their nervousness to repentance. He says that the arrival of the Judge is imminent, and the kingdom of heaven is near! You are invited to hear John, repent, and believe the good news of the coming Savior.

Prayer Before the Service

Lord Jesus Christ, our Advent observance reminds us of our need to wait. We await to see your return in glory and our rescue from this world of sin. Keep our eyes focused on your promises and instill in us a continual longing to be with you in your heavenly kingdom. In your name I pray. Amen.

The Service

Welcome

The Advent candle tradition began with 19th-century German Lutherans, turning winter candles into a symbol of Christ's coming. Each weekly candle increases our anticipation, and the evergreen wreath reflects God's enduring love. On Christmas, the Christ Candle shines, declaring that the promised Light of the world has come.

Lighting of the Advent Candles

We light two Advent candles, remembering Jesus, who came in history. He came into a world of sin and death.

We remember Jesus who came as the promised Messiah. John the Baptist prepared the way of the Lord.

We hear his call to repent.

We light two Advent candles as a sign of our repentance and desire for renewal.

Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest.

Through your Word and Spirit may our souls be blessed.

Two Advent candles are lit.

This 20th-century Advent Gathering Song is written in the spirit of Taizé, with a repeated refrain sung by the congregation, and superimposed verses sung by the cantor or minister. The verses are drawn from the Scripture readings of the day.

Advent Gathering Song

The minister will sing the refrain one time and the congregation will then sing the refrain. The minister will sing the verses; all will sing the refrain where indicated.

Refrain

Come, come Em - man - u - el.

Come, Em - man - u - el.

For a shoot from Jesse will ... Refrain

He will judge with justice and ... Refrain

For the source of all patience will ... Refrain

Confession

The grace of our Lord + Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

And also with you.

We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

God, our heavenly Father, has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

Amen.

2 Corinthians 13:14

God's people live in daily repentance. Now, when gathered in God's presence, the pastor invites them to confess their sins and ask God for his forgiveness.

The Word

The Lord be with you.

Ruth 2:4

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to prepare the way for your only Son. By his coming, give us strength in our conflicts, and shed light on our path through the darkness of this world; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

This prayer has been used by worshipers since the 900's AD.

Be seated

Children's Devotion

First Reading

<sup>1</sup>A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse;
from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him—

Isaiah 11:1-10

Isaiah gives the credentials of the one who would come to judge.

the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding,
 the Spirit of counsel and of might,
 the Spirit of the knowledge and fear of the LORD—
<sup>3</sup>and he will delight in the fear of the LORD.
 He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes,
 or decide by what he hears with his ears;
<sup>4</sup>but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth.
 He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;
 with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.
<sup>5</sup>Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash around his waist.
<sup>6</sup>The wolf will live with the lamb,
 the leopard will lie down with the goat,
 the calf and the lion and the yearling together;
 and a little child will lead them.
<sup>7</sup>The cow will feed with the bear,
 their young will lie down together,
 and the lion will eat straw like the ox.
<sup>8</sup>The infant will play near the cobra's den, and the young child will put its hand into the viper's nest.
<sup>9</sup>They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.
<sup>10</sup>In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples;
 the nations will rally to him, and his resting place will be glorious. (NIV)

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

*The Church sings
 Psalm 130 in services
 that emphasize repentance and forgiveness
 through faith in Jesus.
 The words for this song
 are based on Psalm
 130 and were written by Martin Luther. The tune was written in 2002 by David Ward.*

Psalm of the Day

Psalm 130

1 Out of the depths I cry to you, Lord, hear my
 2 Your pardon is a gift of love, your grace a - 3 Though great our sins and sore our woes his grace much voice of plead - ing; bend down your gra - cious ear, I lone must save us; our works will not re - move our more a - bound - eth; his help - ing love no lim - it

Second Reading

Romans 15:4-13

God's people face the coming judgment with hope, not fear.

<sup>4</sup>For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

<sup>5</sup>May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, <sup>6</sup>so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.

<sup>8</sup>For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth, so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed <sup>9</sup>and, moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written:

“Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing the praises of your name.”

<sup>10</sup>Again, it says,

<sup>11</sup>And again,

“Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him.”

<sup>12</sup>And again, Isaiah says,

“The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; in him the Gentiles will hope.”

<sup>13</sup>May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (NIV)

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn of the Day

On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry

Christian Worship 316

Reflecting the thoughts of the gospel lesson for today, this hymn draws us into the account of John preparing hearts for the coming of the Lord. In the same way, we are called on to prepare our hearts in repentance for the Lord's coming on the Last Day, or when he closes out our life here on earth.

John prepared people for the arrival of the Judge by emphasizing the nearness of the kingdom of God.

Sermon

Matthew 3:1-12

“Will You Ace Your Advent Exam?”

<sup>1</sup>In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea <sup>2</sup>and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.” <sup>3</sup>This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

“A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>John’s clothes were made of camel’s hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup>People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup>But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. <sup>9</sup>And do not think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. <sup>10</sup>The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup>“I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. <sup>12</sup>His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” (NIV)

My Christian Life - Acing Your Advent Exam //

Repentance, baptism, faith, full forgiveness in Jesus’ name. These are the truths that God has given to me. Because of his gifts, I want to ...

- Light two candles during this second week of the Advent season. I can use those candles to remember that God wants my heart prepared for when Jesus comes again.
- Thank the one who has been a “John the Baptist” in my life and helped to prepare me to meet Jesus. I can thank them personally, send them a note of thanks that I am thinking of them, or, if they are already in heaven, I’ll say a pray of thanks to God for them.
- Spend one meal reflecting on baptism’s daily blessings. At lunch or dinner, I’ll review what baptism means: washed, adopted, forgiven, united with Christ, given the Spirit. That remembrance will shape my gratitude and peace!

Based on Luke 1:46-55, Luther considered this song one of the most magnificent statements of faith in all the Scriptures. The Magnificat is the song of the faithful church as she waits quietly for the fulfillment of the word of promise.

Prayer of the Church

Spoken by the Pastor

In offering money as an expression of worship, we are responding to God's claim on our lives and giving him a portion of what he has in fact given us.

Offering

The members of Our Redeemer have joined together to do the Lord's work in this community and around the world. If you are a guest with us this morning, we are so happy you're here! Please do not feel obligated to participate in the offering. For those who wish to give a gift, you can place an offering in the offering plate located near the doors where you entered church today. A plate will be there as you depart today. You may also scan the QR code to the right with your smartphone's camera to be redirected to a page where you can give an offering. While the members of Our Redeemer support this ministry with their gifts, we understand that you might want to learn more about us before you choose to do the same.

Connect Card We would greatly appreciate it, however, if you would fill out a Welcome/Connect Card (located in the rack in front of you) and place it in the offering plate following the service. You could also let us know you were here today by filling out a card online by scanning the QR code to the left.

The Sacrament

Our Redeemer practices close communion. We ask, therefore, that only members of this congregation and our fellowship (the Wisconsin Synod) partake of the sacrament. If you are a member of another Lutheran denomination or Christian church and would like to commune with us in the future, please speak with our pastor after the service and he would be delighted to explain what that entails.

The Preface

Ruth 2:4

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lamentations 3:41

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Psalm 107:1

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Psalm 92:1

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, whose way John the Baptist prepared when he called people to repentance and pointed to Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Holy, Holy, Holy Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of heav - en-ly hosts:
heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Hosan - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he, bless-ed is he, bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Sanctus means "holy."

Used possibly as early as the second century, this canticle was in wide use among Christians in worship by the fourteenth century.

"Hosanna" means

"Save now!"

See Isaiah 6:3.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and forever. Amen.

All of our requests, all of our prayers, all of our needs are summed up in the prayer that our Savior, Jesus Christ, taught us to pray. See Matthew 6:9-13.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: "Take and eat. This is my + body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:23,24

1 Corinthians 11:25

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it all of you; this is my + blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

John 20:19

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Amen.

Jesus is God's Lamb (Agnus Dei), who was offered as a sacrifice
for sin once for all.
See John 1:29 and
Isaiah 53:7.

O Christ, Lamb of God Agnus Dei

O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world;
have mer-cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God,
you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us.
O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world;
grant us your peace. A - men.

Distribution

For the distribution, at the direction of the usher, please proceed to the outside aisle of your side of the church. The baptismal font side will proceed first, front to back. The pulpit side will then follow, front to back. Come to the front of church in groups of about 8 people. After your group is dismissed, proceed to the center aisle, dispose of the cup in the basket, and return to your seat.

Questions for Self-Examination before Communion

- Am I sorry for my sins?
- Do I trust Jesus as my Savior?
- Do I believe Jesus' body and blood are truly present to assure me of forgiveness?
- Do I intend, with God's help, to live a more God-pleasing life?

Closing Prayer and Blessing

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.

Psalm 136:1

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:26

We give thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us with this saving gift. We pray that through it you will strengthen our faith in you and increase our love for one another. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and + give you peace.

Amen.

Receive the same blessing that God gave to the ancient Israelites (Numbers 6:22-27).

Closing Hymn

Hark! A Thrilling Voice Is Sounding
Christian Worship 318 (st. 1-3)

This original Latin hymn has been dated variously from the 400's to 900's AD. Throughout the medieval period it was sung on the first Sunday in Advent and then daily until Christmas Eve. The Advent thoughts of Christ's coming again and repentance are brought out in the hymn stanzas.

December 10, 6:30pm - Starting Point - Christianity 101

Women's Ministry Group Food and Toy Drive

This coming Friday, December 12, is the last day for the Women's Ministry Group's food and toy drive. Bins are available for non-perishable food items and/or toys to be donated to the Seasons of Hope organization to help those in need in our community this holiday season.

Ladies' Annual Christmas Cookie Exchange

This coming Friday, December 12, at 7:00pm, the Our Redeemer Ladies' Annual Cookie Exchange will take place at the home of Karolyn Hanna. Her address is: 5235 Toluca Court, Santa Barbara 93111. If you have questions, please speak to Karolyn Hanna or Pam Schueler.

Church Work Day

We want to take care of what God has entrusted to us, so we will be having a church work day on Saturday, December 13, starting at 9am. This will help us spruce up our campus for Christmas.

Church Christmas Decorating

Next Sunday, December 14, after some fellowship time after the worship service, we will be decorating our church for Christmas. There will be no Bible study that morning. If a number of people can help, it should go fairly quickly. Hope you can be part of this special work!

Poinsettias for Christmas

We love to have our worship space look festive for Christmas. If you would like to add to the beauty of our sanctuary at Christmas, you could loan a poinsettia to be used on Christmas Eve and Day. If you'd like to do that, please bring your poinsettia to worship with you on Sunday, December 21.

Managing God's Gifts to Us

We don't relish deadlines, but they do push us into action. John the Baptist reminds us today that the end is near, the deadline for all people and all things. The wisest use of our time is to give Jesus what he calls for: repentance, which is true sorrow for our sins and trust in Jesus for our forgiveness. With that kind of daily preparation, we're ready for his deadline. To help be kept informed of finances to carry out our ministry plans at Our Redeemer, here is the recent offerings report.

	Last Week	Month-to-Date	Year-to-Date

CHRISTMAS AT OUR REDEEMER

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, God chose to step into our brokenness to offer salvation, peace, and unshakeable love. If you've been searching for meaning, wrestling with life's big questions, or wondering if there's more to Christmas than presents and parties, we invite you to join us for our Christmas services. Whether you're new to faith, returning after time away, or simply curious, you'll find genuine warmth and authentic community here. This Christmas, don't just celebrate the season – discover the Savior!
